

ACHIEVEMENTS
NSS Unit, College of Agriculture,
Kaul (Kaithal)

NSS Unit:

National Service Scheme (NSS) came in to existence in colleges and universities of India on 24th September, 1969 on the birth centenary of Mahatma Gandhi. He believed that the students should do something positive to raise the life of the villagers to higher material and moral levels. In CCSHAU the NSS unit was established in 1970. The overall objective of NSS is service to the community by the students while undergoing instructions in colleges. It aims at improvement in personality through service to the community. NSS volunteers from NSS Unit of College of Agriculture, Kaul are actively participating in activities under Annual NSS Camps, University Level NSS Camps, State Level NSS Camps, National Integration Camps, National Youth Festivals and training under Red Cross Society etc.
