

NSS Unit

The College of Agriculture, Bawal has its NSS unit and it is mandatory for all the students. NSS is part of academic curriculum and is offered as a course of 0+2 credit hours in the first semester under the guidance of NSS programme officer. In this programme, two classes per week are taken. The NSS unit organizes regular camps in nearby villages, celebrate the events through conducting social activities such as rally, awareness campaign, group activities etc. The volunteers are engaged in various competition events on the current social issues like debate competition, poster making competition, essay writing, slogan writing, poem and song competitions etc. for the personality development of the volunteers.
