Institutional Development Plan
National Agricultural Higher Education Project
Chaudhary Charan Singh Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar

CCSHAU, HISAR AT A GLANCE

Chaudhary Charan Singh Haryana Agricultural University popularly known as HAU, is one of Asia's biggest agricultural university, located at Hisar in the Indian state of Haryana. It is named after India's seventh Prime Minister, Chaudhary Charan Singh. It is a leader in agricultural research in India and contributed significantly to Green Revolution and White Revolution in India in the 1960s and 70s. It has a very large campus and has several research centres throughout the state. CCSHAU, Hisar, leading institution in agricultural education, stands among the top 5 SAUs in the country, and won the Indian Council of Agricultural Research's Award for the Best Institute in 1997 and Sardar Patel Outstanding ICAR Institution Award in 2016. HAU was initially a campus of Punjab Agricultural University, Ludhiana. After the formation of Haryana in 1966, it has become an autonomous institution on Feb. 2, 1970 through a Presidential Ordinance, later ratified as Haryana and Punjab Agricultural Universities Act, 1970, passed by the Lok Sabha on March 29, 1970.

ABOUT NAHEP

NAHEP has been formulated by ICAR with a total cost of US$ 165 million (Approx. Rs. 1100 crores). The project is proposed on 50:50 cost sharing basis between the World Bank and the Government of India, implemented by Project Implementation Unit-National Agricultural Higher Education Project (PIU-NAHEP), ICAR, New Delhi. Overall, the project aims to develop resources and mechanism for supporting infrastructure, faculty and student advancement, and providing means for better governance and management of agricultural universities, so that a holistic model can be developed to raise the standard of current agricultural education system that provides more jobs and is entrepreneurship oriented and on par with the global agriculture education standards.

IDP-NAHEP-CCSHAU

CCSHAU, Hisar has been awarded the ICAR-NAHEP project entitled "Strengthening Institutional Capacity to Produce Skilled Professional for Market Driven Agriculture" funded by World Bank and Gol with worth of Rs. 24.83 crores in F.Y. 2017-18 under Institutional Development Plans (IDP) of National Agricultural Higher Education Project (NAHEP).

ABOUT WORKSHOP

The outbreak of corona virus disease (COVID-19) has been declared a Public Health Emergency of International Concern (PHEIC) and the virus has now spread in many countries and territories. India observed a voluntary public curfew at the instance of the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, Sh. Narendra Modi on 22nd March 2020. Further, on 24th March, the PM addressed the nation and announced a nationwide lockdown for 21 days in the country and it has been extended till 3rd May 2020. CCSHAU, Hisar is taking all preventive measure in the university campus as suggested by Gol as well as State Government. University administration has been issued advisory regarding COVID-19 time to time for their employees and students etc.
