Institutional Development Plan
National Agricultural Higher Education Project
Chaudhary Charan Singh Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar

CCSHAU, HISAR AT A GLANCE

Chaudhary Charan Singh Haryana Agricultural University (popularly known as HAU) is one of the Asia's biggest agricultural university, located at Hisar in the North Indian state of Haryana. HAU was initially a campus of Punjab Agricultural University, Ludhiana.

After the formation of Haryana in 1966, it has become an autonomous institution on Feb. 2, 1970 through a Presidential Ordinance, later ratified as Haryana and Punjab Agricultural Universities Act, 1970, passed by the Lok Sabha on March 29, 1970. It is named after India's seventh Prime Minister, Chaudhary Charan Singh. It is a leader in agricultural research in India and contributed significantly to Green Revolution and White Revolution in India in the 1960s and 70s, respectively. The university got appreciation in the shape of the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR), Best Institution Award (1997) and Sardar Patel Outstanding ICAR Institution Award (2016) and one of the top ranked universities of ICAR (Ranking 2018). It has a very large green campus and has several research centres throughout the state.

ABOUT NAHEP

NAHEP has been formulated by ICAR with a total cost of US$ 165 million (Approx. Rs. 1100 crores). The project is proposed on 50:50 cost sharing basis between the World Bank and the Government of India, implemented by PIU-NAHEP, ICAR, New Delhi. Overall, the project aims to develop resources and mechanism for supporting infrastructure, faculty and student advancement, and providing means for better governance and management of agricultural universities, so that a holistic model can be developed to raise the standard of current agricultural education system that provides more jobs and is entrepreneurship oriented and on par with the global agriculture education standards.

IDP-NAHEP-CCSHA

CCSHAU, Hisar has been awarded the ICAR-NAHEP project entitled "Strengthening Institutional Capacity to Produce Skilled Professional for Market Driven Agriculture" funded by World Bank and GoI with worth of Rs. 24.83 crores in F.Y. 2017-18 under Institutional Development Plans (IDP) of National Agricultural Higher Education Project (NAHEP).

ABOUT TRAINING

It has long been felt that besides prescribed curricula, our students must be given additional training in relevant aspects to widen their outlook and perspectives. The significance of additional trainings has become more important in the crisis of COVID-19. Personality development programme is one of most relevant trainings during this period. Personality development is very important for students as it makes them unique, but how does personality develop? What factors play the most important role in the formation of personality? To answer these questions, a student-centric three days online training on 'Personality Development Programme' is being organized by College of Agriculture, Bawal to train the students.

OBJECTIVE OF THE
